Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Lucy Palmer began employment with the South Dakota Department of Labor in June 1977, first as a secretary in the Aberdeen central office and later as a Job Service aide and Job Service representative in Yankton; and,

WHEREAS, Lucy has devoted her career to helping people find gainful employment or upgraded employment, thus enriching the lives of South Dakota citizens; and,

WHEREAS, Throughout her career as a state employee, Lucy exemplified the hard-working, dedicated image we all strive for; and,

WHEREAS, After her diligent service to the people of the Yankton area and the larger community that is South Dakota, Lucy has decided to retire; and,

WHEREAS, Lucy's last day with Job Service in Yankton was Friday, March 31, 1989; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper for the Governor to make note of the milestones in the lives of South Dakota's dedicated and loyal public servants:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim March 31, 1989, as in South Dakota, and I join her husband, Ken, her daughter, Pat, and her co-workers in wishing Lucy an enjoyable and rewarding retirement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Sixth Day of April, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Nine

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
